IMPRESS

Impress celebrates the hand-printed artworks of surface designer Fiona Howard. Each pattern was hand drawn, carved, inked, and impressed into paper, creating unique marks and details. Astek's design team carefully reproduced each artwork, preserving the quality and handmade character of the motifs. Designs range from meandering florals to retro geometrics in a playful color palette inspired by the original linolium block prints themselves.

Impress is a 2019 NYCxDesign award finalist.
